

VENA: LIKENESS

SPRING 2024 ART EXHIBITION

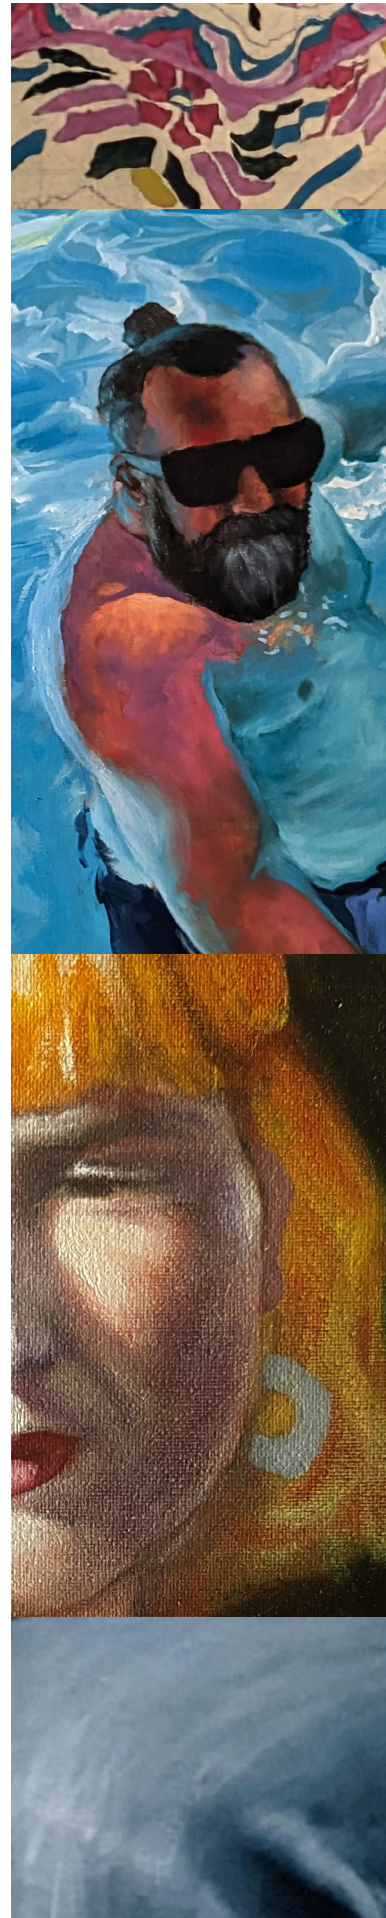

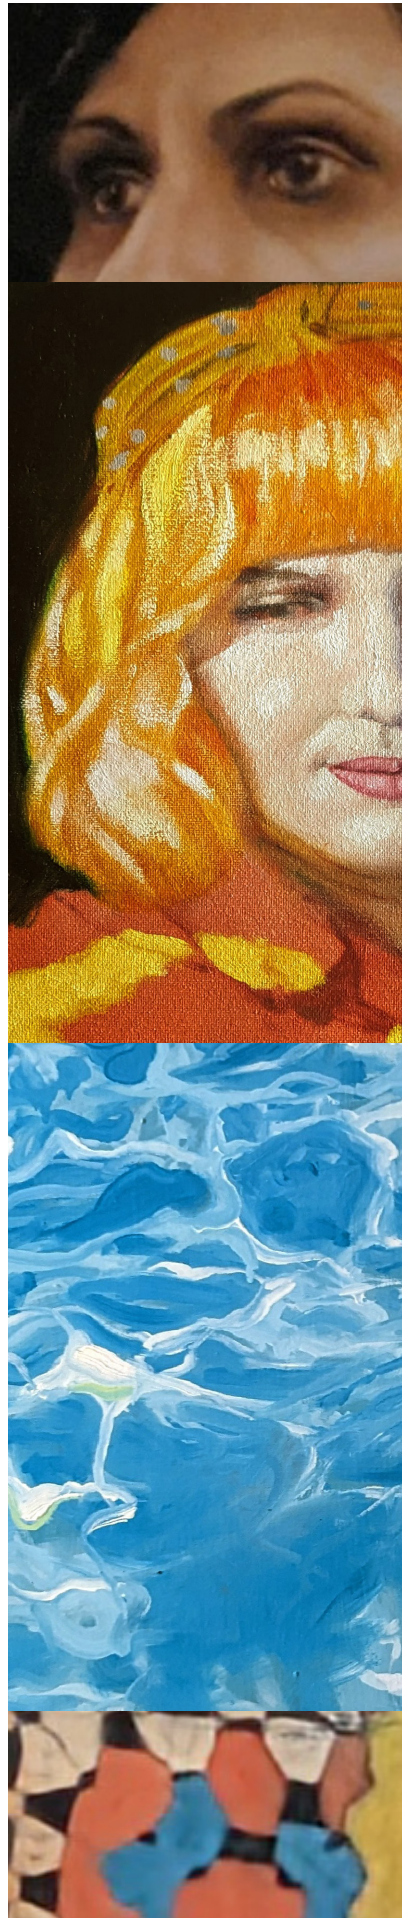

This art exhibition will showcase a series of new works that depict scenes of everyday life from people in and around the Valley, including the artist himself. Each painting will focus on the personal, emotional lives of the people depicted, demonstrating the interconnection and interdependence of diverse people from throughout our region by allowing the viewer to create a personal connection with each subject. The viewer will be able to see themselves in each painting and in doing so, see their connection to our community.
